

Today's Puzzle: Most of the people in this picture have green faces because they're printed on green paper. One of them, however, has a green face because he's a terrible alien from outer space who intends to do terrible things to the planet Earth. Can you pick him out?

If you can't, don't worry. You'll find out soon enough.

Moebius Theater Presents "People of Earth", starring these people of Earth: Martha Soukup, Amy Schaefer, Marco Mendez, Phil Foglio, E. Michael Blake, Leah Bestler and Chip Bestler.

Also: Director Lisa Golladay, Assistant Director Chip Bestler, Producer Chuck Ott, Special Guest Appearance Marty Goady. Our thanks to: the Con Committee and the I.B.C. for their sponsorship.

Dear Denny,

You may remember me--we met several times while Greg lived in the house and I saw you at both ICONs. Well, this year I'm programming chairman for ICON III--no one else would take it.

I remembered what a good job you did the two years before this on running the movies and was wondering if you would consider doing that for us again. We will probably be running two movies and two Flash Gordon serials on Friday night--no movies are planned for Saturday. Being stuck in a position of responsibility is horrible--it makes me think that cons aren't fun. I want to see the movies run as smoothly as possible and that is why I'd like you to be there.

You would get a free membership to ICON if you decide to take over. And of course all the free liquor and food that encompasses. And your name in the program book!

The movies are already ordered and if you could write to us and tell us what equipment you would need (we are reserving two projectors which we thought would be enough). I know you work but movies would be scheduled to start at around 8 p.m. on Friday.

That's all the info I can think of right now. You should have gotten a flyer in the mail but I will send you another just in case. Please write as soon as possible and tell me whether you would like to help us or not.

I hope I see you at ICON III. Thank you.

Terry Matz

Time in the Outer Limits of Iowa City the 28th, 29th and 30th of October 1977 for ICON III at the Carousel in Iowa City.

ICON III's Pro and Fan Guests of Honor are Joe and Gay Haldeman, and we expect the usual Icon filk, backrubs, maybe a fondlecon reunion, yet another skinnycon rising from the depths, and a dash of programming. There are no clowns, but Greg Frost has made us an offer we can't refuse, and at $5 advance, $8 at the door, you can't refuse either. (Especially if you make the checks payable to Science Fiction League.)

Rooms at the Carousel are $14.50/night for singles, $23.00/night for a double, tax and license included.

Hucksters' tables are $10 for a six-foot table, and Rusty Hevelin will handle those arrangements for us.

Despite what medical science says, JOE HALDEMAN does (?) exist. To prove this he will shamle north from his Florida shell, browned and tanned (or is that shaken and baked), and present himself as pro guest of honor at ICON III, In Iowa City, on Oct. 28,29,and 30.

To make sure Joe arrives (and changes clothes, goes to the potty and breathes) is the never ending assignment of theever patient (and did we say short) ICON III fan guest of honor, GAY HALDEMAN. Gay is also reportedly bringing up Joe's rubber duck for the pool.

Lurking in the neighborhood will be such questionable characters as Wilson (Bob) Tucker and Rusty (I have more hair than you and your brother combined) Hevelin. SPLIS will also be present in force (and farce)

Rooms at the Carousel are $16.50/night, single, and $23/night, double.

Huckster's tables are $10 for a six-foot table, and Rusty Hevelin is handling that for us.

Memberships are $5 in advance, $8 at the door.
